let go

walk // take a little / little step / step by step / away a way / ur way // sorry / can't keep u // one shouldn't do so // so keep going on / and on / and on // off / you go / can't hold on // move / just move / there's no thing / to loose // thought a while / that i may / walk u for a mile / or two / or three / or four / and a hundred more // get along / with u / on a long way // side by side / with His word as a light / for our path // but no no // no // yes / maybe / some day / we'll see / we'll meet / where the / two of us / really really / want to be // so farewell / my sweet / heart aches // and each one goes / his her ways // wish u'd find / a place to dwell / later on // but still / i have to say / u may / try it my way / for as a friend / u could / simply / stay //
