

teaser*

hello there, check me out from the movie crowd! there's no need to purchase me, i'm available for free. got a few good reviews, all it takes is to choose. look at the one at imdb, i'm worth being seen. i wasn't made for money but as an indie on a dvd, served on a silver tray. i really mean what i say, my cover tells no lies. go ahead, open the case, play me on your device, i'd like to show my ways. you may love the plot: no one's getting shot, n'shooting stars will last. in short, a very lucky cast! pay attention to the score, it'll hit you without sore, n'shake you to the core, make you long for more. watch the director's cut, c'mon, just pick me up. i promise you to be more than eyes can see.
