

rien ne va plus

*music by sm & lyrics by bastian fährnich trapped in a tricky game of make believe i came to see that bad cards can't grieve take 'em or leave 'em, don't tear 'em apart you said to me in a far too calming voice /: it's all about chance, not about choice :/ and still you make me go back to the table look, i never ever wanna place a safe bet yeah, there's no money or fame to get i have no intention to really bluff or fake /: it's all about my heart that's at stake :/ guess you realised, i lost once before i won't feel ashamed to take in more don't trust this guy, he's gambling too high can't win what's meant to be god's /: it's all about going against the odds :/

i hope you'll meet the lucky one some day for now the croupier wants me to obey this is how far it gets, i gotta pay my debts and what remains is to take a final stance /: it's all about choice, not about chance :/ your song

once again i'm listening in to your newest song on air it's a chord so pleasing lyrics and tunes you make that silence doesn't break chorus:

yet
it's all been heard and seen
there's no real evergreen /: but sing your song for me and i'll forget this creed :/ i'm not the one i used to be words speak right to the heart do you still remember me? your voice would not tell it sounds so done and well

chorus:

and
it's all been heard and seen
/: but sing your song for me

your rhythm never fails is this all that prevails? i feel the time slip away just listen to yourself why not come and stay?

chorus:

for
it's all been heard and seen
